USES

With the present simple, we often use adverbs of frequency to say “how often” we do something.

We usually put the adverbs between the subject and the verb.

I often go to the bank.

EXCEPTION

If we use the verb to be it is totally the opposite, the verb goes FIRST.

Our boss is always on time.

STRUCTURES

We use “once”, “twice”, “three times” + a + period of time or “every” + period of time.

I go to the bank twice a week (2 times)

I go there every morning.
