| Unit 3: Exploring the past  |

1. Past Simple

We use the Past Simple to talk about actions that finished in the past. Common time expressions include yesterday, last week, ago, in 2000.

Regular verbs

To form affirmative sentences in the Past Simple of regular verbs, add -ed to the base verb:

- work → worked

Irregular verbs

Irregular verbs have different forms. Examples:

- go → went

To make negative sentences, use didn't + verb:

- She didn't work yesterday.

To make questions, use Did + subject + verb...? Yes, I did/ No, I didn't

- Did you see the film? Yes, I did. / No, I didn't.

1.1. Verb To Be in the past tense

The verb in the past has two forms in affirmative sentences: "was" and "were".

She was happy yesterday/They were at the park last night.

In the negative form, "not" is added:

- I was not or wasn't tired. /They were not or weren't at home.

For questions, the order is inverted. The short answer will be. Yes, subject was/were or No, subject wasn't/weren't

- Was she your teacher? Yes, she was or No, she wasn't

1.2. Used to

We use used to + verb to talk about past habits or situations that are different now. For negative and questions, use did.

- She used to live in Paris, but now she lives in Madrid.
- She didn't use to like coffee/Did you use to play soccer? Yes, I did/ No, I didn't.

2. Past Continuous

We use the Past Continuous for actions in progress at a specific time in the past. To make negative sentences, we must add "not" to the verb (was not or wasn't/were not/weren't) plus the main verb in -ing. To make interrogative sentences, the order is inverted. The short answer will be "Yes, subject am/is/are or No, subject, am not, isn't, aren't.

Structure: was/were + verb -ing

- I was studying while they were playing.

3. Present Perfect Simple

We use the Present Perfect Simple (have/has + past participle) to talk about past actions that have a result in the present or when the time is not specific. To make negative sentences, we must add "not" to the verb (have not or haven't/has not or hasn't) plus the main verb in the past participle. To make interrogative sentences, the order is inverted. The short answer will be "Yes, subject have/has or No, subject, haven't/hasn't.

- He has lived here since 2020/ I haven't seen that movie before/Have you worked today? Yes, I have/No, I haven't

Common words with Present Perfect:

- Ever/Never: Have you ever travelled abroad? No, never.
- Just: She has just arrived.
- For/Since: I have worked here for five years / I have worked here since 2019.
- Already: I have already done my homework.
- Yet: Have you finished yet? No, not yet.

4. Past Simple vs. Present Perfect Simple

- Past Simple: Action at a specific time in the past → She broke her glasses yesterday.
- Present Perfect: Past action with present relevance → She has broken her glasses.

5. Prepositions of place

We use prepositions of place (at, in, on, under, between, behind, in front of, next to) to describe locations:

| Preposition        | Example                 |
|--------------------|-------------------------|
| At          | at school, at home      |
| In          | in the city, in a car   |
| On          | on the table, on a bus  |
| Under       | under the bed           |
| Between     | between two buildings   |
| Behind      | behind the house        |
| In front of | in front of the TV      |
| Next to     | next to the supermarket |

6. Question tags

Question tags are short questions at the end of a sentence to check information.

- After a positive sentence, use a negative question tag. (Mary will be late, won't she?)
- After a negative sentence, use a positive question tag. (They don't have the notes, do they?)

Exceptions:

- After Let's, use shall we? (Let's start, shall we?)
- After I'm, use aren't I? (I'm wrong, aren't I?)
- After an imperative, use will you? (Don't stay late, will you?)
