3. Expressing purpose

We use different verb forms to say why we do something. These forms help us explain the purpose of an action.

3.1. Infinitive and gerund

Gerund (verb + -ing):

Used after verbs like enjoy, avoid, consider.

Example:

"She enjoys reading books."

Infinitive (to + verb):

Used after verbs like want, need, decide.

Example:

"He decided to leave early."

3.2. Using "to" and "for" for purpose

To + verb: Explains why we do something.

Example:

"I study to improve my skills."

For + gerund: Describe the general purpose or function of something.

Example:

I'm sorry for being late.

For + noun: Explains the reason for something.

Example:

"This book is for beginners."

4. The Imperative

What is it?

It gives orders, instructions, or advice.

Example:

"Close the door."

"Don't be late."

5. The future

We use the future to talk about things that will happen later, after now.

5.1. Future simple

Use: For spontaneous decisions, predictions, or promises.

Example:

"I will help you."

5.2. To be going to

Use: For plans or strong intentions.
